

661—25.7(17A,22) Consent to disclosure by the subject of a confidential record. The subject of a confidential record may consent to agency disclosure to a third party of that portion of the record concerning the subject. The consent must be in writing and must identify the particular record or records that may be disclosed, the particular person, or class of persons, to whom the record may be disclosed, and where applicable, the time period during which the record may be disclosed. The subject and, where applicable, the person to whom the record is to be disclosed may be required to provide proof of identity.

This rule does not apply to criminal investigation, identification or intelligence files.

Access to criminal history data shall be governed by Iowa Code section 692.5.
